

CHOLERA AT HAVANA — Letters from Havana by the Georgia, dated 4th inst, state that there was no little excitement existing there relating to the cholera, which has commenced its ravages in the military hospital, amongst the troops. On the 1st instant the average number of deaths was from fifteen to eighteen; to the 4th instant, from thirty-five to forty-five. Ingress and egress to the hospital had been prohibited.